Ronald Feldman, conductor
Ronald Feldman is artist in residence in orchestral/instrumental music, and coordinator of student string chamber music here at Williams College. After a long career in the Boston Symphony Orchestra’s cello section starting in 1967 at the age of nineteen, Mr. Feldman has gone on to receive critical acclaim for a wide variety of musical achievements. Formerly music director and conductor of the Worcester Symphony Orchestra and of the Boston new music ensemble Extension Works, Ronald Feldman was also music director and conductor of the New England Philharmonic for five seasons. In 1991 he and the Berkshire Symphony were awarded the American Symphony Orchestra League’s ASCAP Award for Adventurous Programming of Contemporary Music. He continues to be an active cellist, conductor, and a member of the Williams Chamber Players.

Special thanks to:
Thanks to the Custodial and Department of Music staff; Noah Fields ’11, T.A.; TiaMoya Ford ’12, and Katie Griffith ’13, stage managers; Harry Van Baaren, poster design; Angela Phienboupha, program layout; and Dan Czerniecki, recording engineer, for assisting with tonight’s performance.
