Brad Wells, director
Conductor, singer, and music educator, Brad Wells has built a thriving choral program at Williams College recognized for its quality of performances and breadth of repertoire. Wells has held conducting positions at Yale University, Trinity College (Hartford, CT), University of California at Berkeley and California State University, Chico. He is in frequent demand as a guest clinician and conductor. Wells has directed choirs of all ages and his ensembles have performed throughout the U.S., Mexico and Europe. As a singer he has performed and recorded with such ensembles as Paul Hillier's Theatre of Voices, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra and the California Choral Company. Also an active composer and arranger, Wells holds degrees in music from Yale University, University of Texas at Austin, and Principia College.

Special thanks to Emily Schreiner and the rest of the staff at WCMA; to our wonderful administrative staff in the Department of Music: Michelle Picard, Jenny Dewar and Marilyn Cole-Dostie; to all three college chaplains: Reverend Rick Spalding, Cantor Bob Scherr and Father Gary Castor; and to David Kechley, Department of Music chair.
