Heidi Miller, conductor

Originally from Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin, Heidi Johanna Miller is Visiting Artist in Residence in Winds and Director of the Williams College Wind Ensemble. Her career includes past appointments as assistant conductor of the Pioneer Valley Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, instructor of vocal music education at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst, lecturer in conducting and music education at Ithaca College, founder and artistic director of the Minneapolis-St. Paul based Sapphire Chamber Consort, and teacher of instrumental music at Spring Lake Park High School (MN) for three years. Miller is also currently co-conductor of the Amherst Community Band.

Also active as a performer, Miller recently performed Joseph Schwantner’s “Sparrows” in recital at the University of Massachusetts. She has appeared with the Minnesota Chorale, the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra Anniversary Chorale, the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra (MN), the Sapphire Chamber Consort, the Cornell University Chorale, and the chamber choir Novi Cantori.

Based in Brooklyn, New York since 2012, Timothy works full-time as a Project Development Associate and Vendor Relations Specialist for Manhattan Concert Productions, and sings in the newly minted Manhattan Concert Chorale, a professional choir dedicated to outstanding performance, education advocacy, and proactive arts administration. He is also thrilled to be returning for a second season in July 2013 as a baritone in the Minnesota Beethoven Festival Chorale under the baton of Dale Warland.

Prior to relocating to New York, Timothy held positions as Section Leader and Soloist with the Senior Choir of Mount Olivet Lutheran Church in Minneapolis under Dr. Beverly Claflin, and as a baritone in The Singers – Minnesota Choral Artists under the direction of Dr. Matthew Culloton.
