About MIDWEEKMUSIC

This popular lunchtime series takes place at 12:15pm on most Wednesdays. Though we do not actually serve lunch, we do encourage everyone to bring along something to eat while they enjoy the music. MIDWEEKMUSIC gives Williams music students and faculty a flexible venue that encourages performers of all experience levels to share what they are learning in lessons or class. Pieces that might not otherwise fit into other contexts also get a hearing, and you shouldn’t be surprised if there is an occasional impromptu discussion. This forum is more informal than many of our concerts. Since you are too on your lunch break, we understand that you may not be able to stay for the entire performance. We do ask that you only enter or exit during applause. Bon appétit!

Liederkreis

III. Conversation in the wood

It is already late, it is already cold;
Why do you ride alone through the wood?
The wood is vast and you are alone,
You fair bride! I will lead you home.

“Great are the deceit and cunning of men;
my heart has broken for pain.
The forest horn strays here and there,
O flee! You do not know who I am.”

So richly decked are mount and lady,
So wondrously fair the young form;
Now I recognize you – God stand by me!
You are the Witch Lorelei.

“You recognize me well – from the lofty cliffs
my castle gazes down into the Rhine.
It is already late, it is already cold –
You shall never again leave this wood.”

IX. Melancholy

Sometimes I can sing,
As if I were happy,
But secretly tears well up
And free my heart.

The nightingales,
When spring breezes play, let
Their songs of yearning resound
From the depths of their dungeons.

Then all hearts listen
And everyone rejoices;
Yet no one truly feels the anguish
Of the song’s deep sorrow.

“Betrachte, meine Seel, mit ängstlichem Vergnügen”

Contemplate, my soul, with anxious pleasure,
with bitter joy and half-constricted heart,
your highest Good in Jesus' suffering,
how for you, out of the thorns that pierce Him,
the tiny 'keys of Heaven' bloom!
You can pluck much sweet fruit
from his wormwood;
therefore gaze without pause upon Him!
