Daniel Potter ‘16 is a senior music and math double major from Wilmington, DE. At Williams, he studies voice with Keith Kibler and organ with Ed Lawrence and sings in both college choirs under the direction of Brad Wells. Additionally, he is the senior music director of Good Question, a co-ed a cappella group on campus, plays in the handbell choir, and rings the Thompson Chapel Chimes. After graduating, Daniel hopes to teach music and direct a choir at an independent school for several years before pursuing an advanced degree in choral conducting.
