Maggie Yang ’16
Senior Piano Recital

Domenico Scarlatti (1685 – 1757) Sonata in A Minor, K. 54
Franz Liszt (1811 – 1886) Sonata in B Minor
Frederic Chopin (1810 – 1849) Piano Concerto No. 1 in E Minor, op. 11

Allegro maestoso

Tony Huang ’16, violin
Megan Maher ’17, violin
MeiLu McDermott ’16, viola
Ian Outhwaite ’17, cello
Chris Janson ’16, bass

Maggie is a senior at Williams majoring in Political Economy. Born and raised in Natick, MA, she began playing piano at the age of five and competing at the age of ten. She was taught by HelenaVesterman until entering Williams, where she is currently a student of Doris Stevenson. Through the years, her passion for the instrument has continued to grow and flourish; in particular, her love for Chopin and the Romantic period knows no bounds. Following graduation, she will be joining the Capital Group in Los Angeles, but she hopes to keep the piano a vibrant part of her life. She would like to express special thanks to her parents, Ms. Vesterman and Ms. Stevenson, the Williams Music Department, her chamber music coach, Ah Ling Neu, and her wonderful quintet for cultivating her love for music and making this performance possible.

Sunday, May 1, 2016
1:00 p.m.
Brooks-Rogers Recital Hall
Williamstown, Massachusetts

Please turn off cell phones. No photography or recording is permitted.