About the Berkshire Symphony Student Soloist Competition

The Berkshire Symphony Student Soloist Competition is open to Williams College students who have completed certain required instrumental or vocal studies and are enrolled in qualifying courses. Each of the soloists has received a recommendation from his or her teacher to participate in the competition. The works they perform may be one movement from a concerto, a single-movement work, a concert or operatic aria, or song cycle for soloist and orchestra. A distinguished panel of judges consisting of professional musicians from outside the Williams community chooses the winners after the competition. The director of the Berkshire Symphony Ronald Feldman hosts the competition.

The competition winners will appear with the Berkshire Symphony in the orchestra’s final regular season concert on Friday, April 21, 2017 in Chapin Hall, a gala evening that showcases the remarkable talents of our Williams students.

Our judges for the 2017 Competition are:

Sarah Briggs
Amanda Boyd
Gili Melemed-Lev

Faculty Host:

Ronald Feldman
